Protection of minors: PassTheMic! does not intentionally collect personal information (such as name, address and telephone number, etc.) of minors. We do not allow minors to register on our websites or to participate to online contests or promotions. In any case, if the parent or guardian of a minor should deem that the minor may have provided any personal information, he/she should contact us to delete such information from our archives. If PassTheMic! becomes aware of being in possession of personal information related to a minor, shall immediately proceed to erase the information provided from its databases. If false data are provided, PassTheMic! shall be held harmless from any liability and/or claim without prejudice to the mandatory inspections under its responsibility. In addition, please note that all minors must, however, receive the proper authorisation from their parents or guardians before using or making public the information on websites of any type. Categories of recipients to which the personal data may be communicated: Your data/data of the minor in your care will not be disclosed by us, by which we mean that we will not disclose said data to unknown parties, including via data availability or consultation. Your data/data of the minor in your care may be disclosed by us, by which we mean that we will make said data available to specific subjects within the following terms: to parties that may access data due to legal provisions, EU regulations and within the limits established by those regulations; objects that need to access your data for purposes strictly linked to meeting your request and for purposes not directly linked to same, within the limits strictly necessary to perform the tasks connected (public safety and other public or private subjects for the performance of legal obligations in administrative and similar terms); of the company, qualified as parties in charge of the processing of personal data as well as the teaching staff (which consists of employed personnel as well as independent professionals) and to personnel in charge of replying to your requests limitedly to the communication requirements in question (specifically name and email address and any other contact information you may provided; to subjects who assist us in the forwarding of communications with commercial/promotional purposes; to system administrators properly appointed by the company in compliance with the legal provisions. Important: your data will not be communicated to third parties for marketing purposes. Storage period of the personal data: Your personal data will be stored in our archives for the purposes mentioned herein and on the basis of your authorisations for the period considered appropriate or for a maximum of 10 years. This time period may be reduced and/or increased (after informing the interested parties) in the case, by way of example, of information originating from Agencies and/ or Control Authorities. At any time you have the right to revoke your consent without prejudice to the lawfulness of the processing based on the consent issued prior to the revocation. Transfer to non-EU countries: The transfer of personal data outside the European Union: may bring forth greater risks and as such it must be protected adequately; this is a complex activity that requires specific knowledge. The starting point of an organisation to this end must be to adopt countermeasures suitable to maintain the same level of protection that the personal data would have by remaining within the EU. If PassTheMic! makes use of this opportunity, it commits to collect ahead of time and make available to the interested parties all the support documentation (for example: the presence of the “legally binding instrument” being effective between public authorities or public bodies; binding corporate regulations; the provisions for the protection of personal data adopted by the Committee; code of conduct and certification mechanisms) with the same methods with which said rights can be exercised. Filing Complaints to the Privacy Protection Authority: The procedures and protection measures available to you (in addition to exercising your rights towards us) are the following: Accessing the website www.garanteprivacy.it in the appropriate section dedicated to complaints if the Italian Authority is the one having jurisdiction; or respecting the procedures established by the Data Protection Authority of the Member State (if other than Italy) in which you typically resides, work or where the alleged violation has occurred. Your rights: Access right: you may receive a copy of your personal data being processed at any time. Limitation right: this right can be exercised not only in case of a breach of principles of legitimacy of the data processing but also to request the correction of the data or to oppose the data processing. The Data Controller undertakes to mark the data in question during the evaluation period to decide the course of action through the use of organisational measures suitable for this purpose. Correction right: you may obtain without delay the correction of your personal data if they are inaccurate and may also obtain the integration of incomplete personal data by providing an integrative statement. Opposition right: you have the right to oppose, at any time and for reasons connected to your particular situation, the processing of your personal data even if they are used for direct marketing and/or profiling. Revocation right: you have the right to revoke your consent if issued, for example, for marketing purposes and the like. Erasure right (right to be forgotten): it is possible to request the deletion of your personal data in a strengthened form, for example even after the revocation of consent for the processing of your personal data.

Portability right: it does not apply to non-automated processing; therefore it is not applicable to archives and/or paper records. Furthermore, only the data that are provided by you to the Data Controller and processed with your consent or on the basis of a contract stipulated with the Data Controller are deemed portable. Which contact details should you use to exercise your rights? Università Iuav di Venezia, Palazzo Badoer, Calle de la Laca 2468, 30125 Venezia ph (+39) 041 257 1516, mail: info@passthemic.eu. Term and methods of reply by the Data Controller to those who wish to make use of the rights associated with their personal data: We would like to inform you that if you exercise your rights, the Data Controller must provide you with a written reply through electronic means that facilitate accessibility (verbally only on specific request of the interested party) within 1 (one) month, which, in those cases of particular complexity, can be extended to 3 (three) months without prejudice to the obligation to provide a reply within one month from the date of the request even in the case of refusal. The Data Controller, after having assessed the complexity of the request submitted by the interested party, may establish the amount of any fee that may be requested but only if the requests are clearly unfounded or excessive. Amendments to this information sheet: The Data Controller reserves the right to apply changes to this information page at any time by providing notification to the Users here. Therefore, we would recommend to visit this page often and to refer to the last date of changes specified at the bottom. If you do not agree with the changes applied to this privacy policy, you are requested to stop the use of the App and you may require to the Data Controller to delete your personal data. Unless otherwise specified, the aforementioned information sheet will continue to apply to the Personal Data collected up to that time. Update date: September, 2021.
